

Liverpool Elk's Lodge #2348 hosts a breakfast buffet the second Sunday of each month from October May. They typically serve several hundred people in their community made to order omelets, scrambled eggs, pancakes, Frenchtoast, home fries, fretta, sausage gravy and biscuits, bacon,sausage, Belgiumwaffles with toppings, toast, Cereal, orange, apple and tomato juice, coffee, milk and more. During their October breakfast four Veterans and three assistants from the Syracuse VA Center were guests of the lodge for breakfast. What a wonderful opportunity for those who served our country to have a brief break from their daily routine Each Veteran was given a SU Basketball Poster and a tin of cookies to take back to the VA center.
